

Defebo, David

From: Dave DeFebo [wb9bwp@execpc.com]
Sent: Saturday, February 17, 2001 12:50 PM
To: Dave DeFebo at Eaton
Subject: Fw: Badges

----- Original Message -----

From: "Dave DeFebo" <wb9bwp@execpc.com>
To: "Matt Planning KB9PRC" <MatthewPlanning@eaton.com>; "Tom Fuszard KF9PU" <tfuszard@aero.net>; "Pancho Doneis KA9OFA" <pancho@thepark.net>; "Jim Tromblay WB9LNU" <wb9lnu@aol.com>; "Brian White K9LCQ" <bwhite@execpc.com>; "Barbara Brewer KB9TIV" <bzbrewer@compuserve.com>; "John Merkl WB9PSE" <jmer@execpc.com>; "Kate Kedney KA9MWT" <ckedney@aol.com>; "Matt Planning KB9PRC" <engine-ear@voyager.net>
Sent: Tuesday, February 13, 2001 11:33 PM
Subject: Fw: Badges

> Hi gang,

>

> We discussed badges last month. I came across a web site for a place that > does ham badges (among others), advertises in QST and is even on the ARRL > official badge makers list (for official ARRL appointees). I sent them an > email asking for more info and the response I received is below. Their web > site is: <http://www.open.org/~capengrv/>. If you get a chance, check them > out and we will discuss more on Monday (board meeting, remember?).

>

> Dave WB9BWP

>

> ----- Original Message -----

> From: "Al Ross" <capengrave@kalama.com>
> To: <wb9bwp@execpc.com>
> Sent: Sunday, February 11, 2001 11:34 PM
> Subject: Badges

>

>

>> Hi Dave

>>

>> Thank you for your inquiry about badges for the Milwaukee Radio amateurs'
>> Club.

>>

>> Finding us through a net search is doing it the hard way! We have an >> advertisement in QST in the "classified" section under QSL
Cards/Callsign
>> Novelties.

>>

>> Our badges run from $4.00 for a 1 X 3 inch badge with a name and callsign

>> to $10.50 for a badge with a complicated logo. Most of our logo badges > run >> around $7.50. Shipping for an individual badge is $1.00. For multiple >> badges, the shipping is around the cost of postage.

>>

>> For some badges on our webpage we have downloaded from websites, copied >> from QSL cards, made from drawings, copied from business cards and >> whatever. We do not charge a "setup" fee but do not give quantity >> discounts either. the cost of a badge will remain the same until the > > material it's made from increases in price.

> >
> > I looked at the MRAC website and saw that your logo has several shades
of > > blue and several colors. The badge material comes in a surface color and,
> > when engraved, is a different color for the lettering. Example: white > > surface with blue lettering. There are hundreds of color combinations, > far > > too many to list. It is sometimes possible to add one additional color > > using a paint fill.
> >
> > Some companies can offer a badge where the logo can be printed in multiple > > colors but these will scratch easily. A logo can also be screen printed > > but will also scratch easily. We do not use either process. Our > specialty
> > is in the two color badges (sometimes three). The "official" ARRL badges
> > are screen printed for the black and white bars as well as the ARRL logo.
> > These would be the emergency coordinator etc. badges.
> >
> > I hope I have not confused you too much! If you have any questions, > please > > call 1-800-628-4985 or E-mail.
> >
> > 73's
> >
> > Al Ross WA7UQE
> > Capital Engraving
> >
> >
> >
> >
>

Capital ENGRAVING

Custom Engraved Badges & Buckles

March 23, 2001

Dave DeFebo
W 12620 Lakespur Rd S-67
Muskego, WI 53150

Dear Dave

Please find enclosed a sample badge that I constructed from the MRAC logo that I found on your club website.

As you are aware, the logo is too complicated to engrave on a badge using all the information. I came as close as possible, taking your suggestions as to what to delete. I did, however, put Milwaukee Radio amateurs' Club on top rather than on the bottom as I thought it balanced better that way.

You managed to pick a color combination that left no alternative but what you see. There is no blue/gold combination available and only the blue/yellow that I used for your badge.

The cost of an individual badge will be $8.75 plus $1.00 shipping. Shipping for multiple badges will be somewhere around the cost of postage.

We do accept VISA and MASTER CHARGE but DO NOT send numbers via the internet.

If you have any questions, please call 1-800-628-4985 which also works for FAX. You can also E-mail.

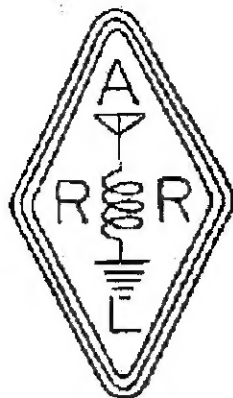

Sincerely

Al Ross WA7UQE

3109 Marigold St. ♦ Longview, WA ♦ Phone or FAX 360-575-1408 ♦ 1-800-628-4985

198632

ARRL
Certified Engraver

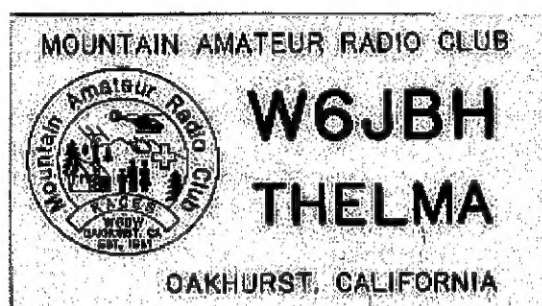

(1-800-628-4985).

Ham Radio

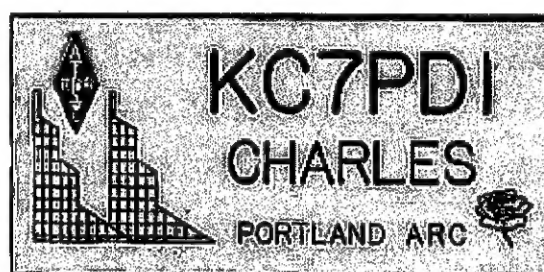

Custom Engraved Club Badges

*Your club name, logo, personal name,
call sign*

The badges displayed on this page are examples of what can be done. The badge prices start at $3.50. For detailed pricing please e-mail or call Capital Engraving

2" x 3.75"

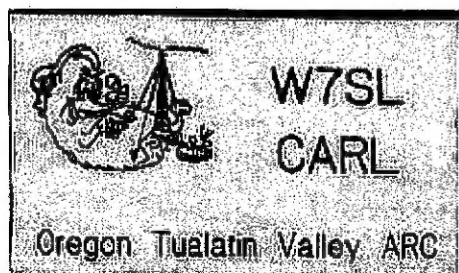

1.75" x 3.5"

3.5 x 1.75

3.5" x 1.75"

1.75" x 3"

2" x 2.75"

1" x 3"

© Copyright 1998 Capital Engraving, all rights reserved

Defebo, David

From: Dave DeFebo [wb9bwp@execpc.com]
Sent: Sunday, April 22, 2001 11:37 PM
To: Defebo, David
Subject: Fw: Badges

----- Original Message -----

From: "Dave DeFebo" <wb9bwp@execpc.com>
To: "Al Ross" <capengrave@kalama.com>
Sent: Friday, March 23, 2001 5:16 PM
Subject: Re: Badges

> Al,
>
> First, I want to thank you for the prompt response from you a few weeks > back. The board members discussed the badge situation at our recent board > meeting and I have decided to be the guinea pig for an "official" club > badge. I was hoping to create a graphic of a simplified club logo for you > to use but have not had the chance to finish one. I realize our logo is > quite complicated, especially for engraving. Let me try to describe what > I > would like and see if it makes sense to you and if you could give me a price > and I will place an order (with hopefully more orders to come from other > club
> members after they see what I got).
>
> Here's what I was thinking of: 1.75" x 3" (as displayed on your Club
Badge
> web page, 3rd one down on the left)
>
> (MRAC logo) WB9BWP Dave
> Milwaukee Radio Amateurs Club
>
> For colors, probably a yellow or gold lower surface so text is yellow or > gold (along with the logo lightning bolts) with a surface color of blue.
>
> If the logo as it stands is too complicated (and it probably is),
"Milwaukee
> Radio Amateur's Club", "Spark to Space", "VEC Testing", the key, satellite > and Morse code could be left off as well as the "Wi" within the state of > Wisconsin outline.
>
> Does any of that make sense and does it sound practical? Do you have any > suggestions?
>
> Thanks for your help,
>
> Dave DeFebo WB9BWP
>

> ----- Original Message -----

> From: "Al Ross" <capengrave@kalama.com>
> To: <wb9bwp@execpc.com>
> Sent: Sunday, February 11, 2001 11:34 PM
> Subject: Badges
>
>

> > Hi Dave
> >
> > Thank you for your inquiry about badges for the Milwaukee Radio

amateurs'
 > > Club.
 > >
 > > Finding us through a net search is doing it the hard way! We have an > > advertisement in QST in the "classified " section under QSL
 Cards/Callsign
 > > Novelties.
 > >
 > > Our badges run from $4.00 for a 1 X 3 inch badge with a name and callsign
 > > to $10.50 for a badge with a complicated logo. Most of our logo badges > run > > around $7.50. Shipping for an individual badge is $1.00. For multiple > > badges, the shipping is around the cost of postage.
 > >
 > > For some badges on our webpage we have downloaded from websites, copied > > from QSL cards, made from drawings, copied from business cards and > > whatever. We do not charge a "setup" fee but do not give quantity > > discounts either. the cost of a badge will remain the same until the > > material it's made from increases in price.
 > >
 > > I looked at the MRAC website and saw that your logo has several shades
 of > > blue and several colors. The badge material comes in a surface color and,
 > > when engraved, is a different color for the lettering. Example: white > > surface with blue lettering. There are hundreds of color combinations, > far > > too many to list. It is sometimes possible to add one additional color > > using a paint fill.
 > >
 > > Some companies can offer a badge where the logo can be printed in multiple > > colors but these will scratch easily. A logo can also be screen printed > > but will also scratch easily. We do not use either process. Our > specialty
 > > is in the two color badges (sometimes three). The "official" ARRL badges
 > > are screen printed for the black and white bars as well as the ARRL logo.
 > > These would be the emergency coordinator etc. badges.
 > >
 > > I hope I have not confused you too much! If you have any questions, > please
 > > call 1-800-628-4985 or E-mail.
 > >
 > > 73's
 > >
 > > Al Ross WA7UQE
 > > Capital Engraving
 > >
 > >
 > >
 >
 >

Defebo, David

From: Dave DeFebo [wb9bwp@execpc.com]
Sent: Sunday, April 22, 2001 11:06 PM
To: Defebo, David
Subject: Fw: Badges

----- Original Message -----

From: "Al Ross" <capengrave@kalama.com>
To: <wb9bwp@execpc.com>
Sent: Tuesday, April 10, 2001 8:18 PM
Subject: Badges

> Hi Dave
>
> Thank you for your E-mail concerning badges for the MRAC.
>
> It's nice to know that, occasionally, I don't do everything wrong!
>
> We have no problem with everyone ordering their own badge. We are amenable > to whatever you want.
>
> We do try to get our work out as soon as possible rather than waiting for > checks to clear etc.. We have had very few problems with checks coming > back from hams. A few, but not many. There will be two periods in May > when we will be closed for a week each time. That may slow things down a bit.
>
> 73's
>
> Al Ross WA7UQE
> Capital Engraving
>

Defebo, David

From: Dave DeFebo [wb9bwp@execpc.com]
Sent: Sunday, April 22, 2001 11:06 PM
To: Defebo, David
Subject: Fw: MRAC Badges

----- Original Message -----

From: "Dave DeFebo" <wb9bwp@execpc.com>
To: "Al Ross" <capengrave@kalama.com>
Sent: Tuesday, April 10, 2001 7:35 PM
Subject: MRAC Badges

> Al,
>
> Again I want to thank you for the excellent service. A second sample when I
> didn't even ask for it. Wow. I guess I picked the right place.
>
> Anyway, I have spoken with most of our board and received their approval > with one small change in the logo area. The suggestion was to skip the > repeater frequency (147.045 +600) and make the call sign (W9RH) larger.
> Other than that, we are ready to go and publicize the badge. If we tell > people to just order the Milwaukee Radio Amateurs' Club badge (with their > name and call sign of course), is that good enough? With a price of $8.75 > plus $1.00 shipping. You may start seeing orders in a couple of weeks.

We > have around 100 members, but there will probably be some who are too cheap > to buy a badge, but a couple of people said they may buy 2.

>
> Again, thanks for the great service,
>
> Dave DeFebo WB9BWP

>
> Al,
>
> Again I want to thank you for prompt service. I did not expect a "sample" > made and so quickly yet. Everything looks great to me (there was one small > glitch, the numbers within the logo should be 147.045 + 600, the sample has > 147.05 + 600). Over the next couple of weeks I should be talking to most of > the board members to get their OK, and then we will begin advertising to the > club members and you should start to see some orders.

>
> In the morning mail a check is going out to you for $8.75 + $1.00 for the > sample. Thanks for the good service.

>
> Dave DeFebo WB9BWP
> President
> Milwaukee Radio Amateurs' Club Inc.

> ----- Original Message -----

> From: "Dave DeFebo" <wb9bwp@execpc.com>
> To: "Al Ross" <capengrave@kalama.com>
> Sent: Friday, March 23, 2001 5:16 PM
> Subject: Re: Badges

>
> > Al,
> >
> > First, I want to thank you for the prompt response from you a few weeks > > back. The board members discussed the badge situation at our recent board > > meeting and I have decided to be the guinea pig for an "official" club > > badge. I was hoping to create a graphic of a simplified club logo for you > > to use but have not had the chance to finish one. I realize our logo is > > quite complicated, especially for engraving. Let me try to describe what > I > > would like and see if it makes sense to you and if you could give me a > price
> > and I will place an order (with hopefully more orders to come from other
> > club
> > members after they see what I got).
> >
> > Here's what I was thinking of: 1.75" x 3" (as displayed on your Club
> Badge
> > web page, 3rd one down on the left)
> >
> > (MRAC logo) WB9BWP Dave
> > Milwaukee Radio Amateurs Club
> >
> > For colors, probably a yellow or gold lower surface so text is yellow or > > gold (along with the logo lightning bolts) with a surface color of blue.
> >
> > If the logo as it stands is too complicated (and it probably is),
> "Milwaukee
> > Radio Amateur's Club", "Spark to Space", "VEC Testing", the key, satellite > > and Morse code could be left off as well as the "Wi" within the state of > > Wisconsin outline.
> >
> > Does any of that make sense and does it sound practical? Do you have any > > suggestions?
> >
> > Thanks for your help,
> >
> > Dave DeFebo WB9BWP
> >
> > ----- Original Message -----
> > From: "Al Ross" <capengrave@kalama.com>
> > To: <wb9bwp@execpc.com>
> > Sent: Sunday, February 11, 2001 11:34 PM
> > Subject: Badges
> >
> >
> > > Hi Dave
> > >
> > > Thank you for your inquiry about badges for the Milwaukee Radio > amateurs'
> > > Club.
> > >
> > > Finding us through a net search is doing it the hard way! We have an > > > advertisement in QST in the "classified " section under QSL
> Cards/Callsign
> > > Novelties.
> > >
> > > Our badges run from $4.00 for a 1 X 3 inch badge with a name and > callsign > > > to $10.50 for a badge with a complicated logo. Most of our logo badges

